FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

United Way Campaign Currently at 70% of Goal

At a campaign reception hosted by Sealy Flats, United Way of the Concho Valley's 2009 Campaign Chair Shelley Burnett, announced that the United Way Campaign is currently at $1,388,903 which is 70% of the goal of $2,000,000. The theme for this year's campaign is "Stand by Me."

In addition, the winner of a one and a quarter carat diamond pendant, designed and donated by Mark Priest of Legend Jewelers was drawn at the event.

Mark Nettles of City of San Angelo Lake Operations was the recipient of the pendant. Individuals, who made a donation to the 2009 United Way of the Concho Valley Campaign were eligible to enter into the drawing.

This year's United Way Annual Campaign will run through the end of December. Companies may still schedule a campaign by calling the United Way office at 949-3716.

Money raised through donations will benefit the United Way's Program Providers which are listed on the United Way of the Concho Valley website: www.uwconchovalley.org. The 2009 Campaign Video, "Stand by Me" featuring all local musicians, who donated their time and talents, can be viewed on the website as well.
